God's Work, Our Hands

We extend our sympathy on your loss and offer our assistance to you as your family and friends gather together.

Our goal is to make this time in your life as stress free as possible by surrounding you with the love and support of the congregation.

We're Here To Help

Pastor Doug Vold and the church staff will assist in the funeral worship service arrangements.

You are welcome to have coffee or food served in Blaar Hall. Please let the pastor or the office staff know which family member to contact along with their phone number. .

A coordinator will contact you regarding the food served and request the following information:

- How many guests would you estimate will be served?
- What kind of food would you like to have served?

Food served includes cookies, sandwiches, fruit, vegetables, and purchased cake. Beverages include coffee, tea, juice or punch. Catered food must be ordered and delivered by the family or caterer.

Ascension Lutheran Women will furnish tables, chairs, tablecloths, dishes, silverware, carafe, etc. We will set up, serve, and clean up.

No rental fee is charged to Ascension Lutheran Church members for use of Blaar Hall for funeral receptions.

For non-members we respectfully suggest $1.00 per person. This donation can be made payable to Ascension Lutheran Church Women (ALCW). For unusual schedules or circumstances, other fees may apply. Please contact the church office.
